Tiffany mentioned she is putting together a winter trip out to Deerhaven Animal Sanctuary.

Ed said there wouldn't be a new photo assignment for December. We will continue to work on the pure composition assignment.

We had a presentation of the previous assignment which was the use of backlighting in our photography.

Jacelyn introduced Chris D'Ardenne who is a local landscape photographer. He gave a very excellent talk on photo stacking. Introducing the concept and the different uses. He uses it mainly for landscapes. This allows the photos to be blown up to very large sizes and still maintain very small details.

The meeting was adjourned for socializing.
